Volunteers Needed for Cops and Kids Picnic

May 17 Event Offers Free Lunch, Music and Games

SEGUIN, Texas – The Seguin Police Department is seeking volunteers for the 2014 Cops and Kids Picnic.

“This is such a rewarding event to be involved with,” Seguin Public Information Officer Scott Packard said. “Seeing the children smile and laugh as they interact with police officers is a great sight.”

The Cops and Kids picnic is 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. Saturday, May 17 at the large pavilion at Max Starke Park. There will be music, food and games. All children 12 and under will be given a complimentary lunch consisting of a hotdog, chips and a drink. Children will be given raffle tickets for the chance to win a bike. Raffle winners must be present to claim their prize.

If you are interested in volunteering to run a game, contact MC Myers at (830) 401-2353 or Stacy Passante at (830) 401-2362. The event is organized by the Seguin Police Department.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational, and employment opportunities. Seguin’s robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2009, Seguin was proud to be selected by Caterpillar as the site of a major new engine manufacturing facility.
